Art for the Amateur

STUDY OPTIONS
Part-time

LENGTH
20 hours

DESCRIPTION
Students develop knowledge and understanding of what it means to express a personal visual language in response to a selected theme. In addition, students will develop their capacity to appropriately choose drawing and painting media, techniques and processes. Students will explore a chosen theme, develop a selection of drawn and painted compositions and bring these to a considered conclusion in the production of a final masterpiece!
This course is intended to develop students' artistic abilities and to foster their appreciation and understanding of visual arts. On completion of the course students should each have a portfolio of completed works and may have the opportunity to display their work.

COURSE CONTENT
In addition to plenty of hands-on practice, students will explore a range of topics related to painting and drawing, including:
• selecting appropriate paint and materials
• drawing techniques
• use of colour, composition, line and tone
• mixed-media techniques - watercolour and opaque painting portraiture, figure composition, landscapes, still life and abstract.
